

Date: 22nd April 2016

Time: 8:10 AM

Venue: Elm Anteroom

Note-Taker: Patrick Wu

Presiding Officer: Patrick Wu

Attendance: Patrick Wu, Sharlene Chow, Glen Koh, Shreyasa Pradhan, Joey Lim

Absent: Elson Ong, Erika Terrones-Shibuya, Gin Ong (all with apologies)

Agenda:

- Stipend Proposal
- Procedural changes and issues should be settled
- Constitutional change to Judiciary selection method
- Power over private individuals clarified
- Power to compel

Summary:

Members of the Yale-NUS College Judiciary met to discuss the stipend proposal and proposed changes to the Yale-NUS College Government Constitution. The stipend proposal was ultimately felt to be not unconstitutional. The proposed changes to the constitution were, in a final form, presented to Council at a later meeting that same day.

Agenda	Discussion Points	Action
Stipend Proposal	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Joey, Sharlene, Shreyasa, Glen: believe that it's not unconstitutional</li> </ul>
Constitutional Changes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Judicial Processes               <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Power to summon witnesses, but clear language that individual litigants bear the burden in ensuring their witnesses are present</li> <li>○ Power to address past misconduct</li> </ul> </li> <li>● Judicial votes should pass by majority</li> <li>● Method for dealing with extreme recusal situations</li> <li>● Fewer people on Judiciary (maybe 5?)</li> <li>● Method for re-balloting removed Judiciary members</li> </ul>

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Better selection process: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Elected members? Review by previous/outgoing Judiciary members? Including outgoing Council members?</li> </ul> </li> <li>●</li> </ul>
Guidelines for next Judiciary	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Pre-trial processes</li> <li>● Faculty advisor, maybe Dean Bridges</li> <li>● Hearing procedures</li> </ul>

Agenda for our next meeting:

-

Reminders/ Updates:

-